LOYALTY

What is LOYALTY?

LOYALTY is defined as the state or quality of being loyal; faithfulness to commitments or obligations LOYALTY is unwavering in good times and bad.
LOYALTY is what you do, not what you say.
LOYALTY is in your heart. It is willing and not reluctant.
LOYALTY may involve sacrifice.

Why is LOYALTY important?

LOYALTY to others is important so that they know they can trust in you to support them. Lack of LOYALTY is one of the major causes of failure in every walk of life. A group can achieve their goal more quickly if they are loyal to their tasks and organization.

"Besides pride, loyalty, discipline, heart, and mind, confidence is the key to all the locks.
-Joe Paterno, Head Coach Penn State Football

Examples of how to show LOYALTY

This can be done by doing things such as refraining from gossip, coming to the defense of those who are being gossiped about and not speaking unkindly to family members and friends.
Simple things like shopping at the same grocery store, supporting a local organization or school.
Even when things are not working out as good as you think it should be, sticking out the tough times with your team, family and friends, is and example of how to be loyal.

What is the opposite of LOYALTY?

Being unfaithful, deceitful and untrustworthy;
Talking badly about someone, lying, and not caring about others is an example of being un-loyal.

Watch your thoughts; they become words. Watch your words; they become actions.
Watch your actions; they become habits. Watch your habits; they become character.
Watch your character, for it becomes your destiny!!!
